

Gathering thevoices

The Gathering the Voices exhibition illustrates with words and images the experiences of survivors of Nazi persecution who sought refuge in Scotland in the 1930s and 40s. These survivor testimonies can be heard on the website www.gatheringthevoices.com. The interviewees discuss their lives and earliest memories of life in Europe, the horrors of Nazism, their experiences of migration and gradual integration into Scottish society.

21 March - 1 April 2016

On display in 50 George Square, Edinburgh

Public lecture

31 March 2016

5.30 - 6.30pm

THE UNIVERSITY of EDINBURGH
School of Literatures,
Languages and Cultures

“Disseminating the message of the Holocaust for the Digital Generation”

Angela Shapiro (Glasgow Caledonian University)

Project Room

50 George Square, Edinburgh

A drinks reception will be held after the talk from 6.30pm to 7.30pm.

www.gatheringthevoices.com

Travelling exhibition supported and funded by:

